

Dear Counselors,

We are pleased to inform you that the SUNY Plattsburgh Shine On! program is offering a $500 scholarship to a woman attending SUNY Plattsburgh in Fall 2019. The application deadline is April 15th, 2019. Enclosed in this scholarship packet are brochures and an information sheet.

Shine On! is an organization of SUNY Plattsburgh women dedicated to raising resilient, confident girls by teaching media literacy, communication skills, and character strengths. These tools will better equip them with the coping skills necessary to resist societal pressures they will face throughout life. For more information contact:

Thank you, we look forward to receiving applications from your students.

Shine on! Scholarship

Shine On! is an organization of SUNY Plattsburgh women dedicated to raising resilient, confident girls by teaching media and marketing literacy, communication skills, and character strengths. These tools will better equip them with the coping skills necessary to resist societal pressures they will face throughout life. The goal of Shine On! is not to fix problems after the fact. Rather, we want to attack and eradicate them where they begin - in childhood.

Shine On! will award a $500 scholarship to the woman who best demonstrates a clear understanding of our mission. The chosen recipient will possess strong character strengths, communication skills, and insight when it comes to media and marketing literacy.
